    c) Adverse Childhood Experiences and Population Health in Washington: The Face of a Chronic Public Health Disaster; Dr. Rob Anda & Dr. David Brown – Early snapshots of results from the 2009 Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance System survey, reported by Laura Porter. (Full report will be received in the next couple of weeks.

3. Discussion   3:15
    A. What are some tactical uses for the information, given the work you are doing now?

    B. In the next couple of weeks, we'll have the full report on adult Adverse Childhood Experience levels from Dr. Rob Anda and Dr. David Brown. How would you like to proceed?

        Discussion of three paths –
        a) Family Policy Council members continue to generate a list of tactical uses for the information.
        b) After receiving the report, have a Family Policy Council member retreat to gain a deeper understanding of the findings and take more time to develop uses for the information.
        c)   After receiving the report, invite others and engage a larger group in a discussion and plans for using the information. In broad strokes, who would you want to be involved?

    C. What might you need in order to move forward with these ideas?

    D. Summary, conclusions   (DECISION- MAY NOT REQUIRE MOTION)   4:15
